An Extensive Library Collection
- 24/7 Access: Many items are available for study and research around the clock, including e-books and e-journals, which are housed in our library database.
- All Formats: Numerous materials come in e-book, video, CD, and DVD formats.
- Research Databases: Over 160 databases combine scholarly and peer-reviewed journals, company and industry information, images and videos, and a wide array of literature and social science topics.
- Books: Access more than 158,000 volumes, approximately 18,000 print and over 140,000 e-books.
- OhioLINK: OhioLINK affiliation provides access to more than 49 million items, many of which can be delivered in 3-5 business days to our Main Campus, as well as our Delaware, Dublin, and Westerville locations.
- Interlibrary Loans: We’ll help you locate items from collections around the state and beyond.

Reference Services
Our library staff can help you use research databases and online catalogs, direct you to facts and statistics, help you select and evaluate print and online reference tools, and complete your library loan requests.
- Library Staff Email: Get your research questions answered via email at library@franklin.edu.
- Chat: Ask librarians questions about your research online in real-time during the library’s regular operating hours.
- Professional Reference Assistance & Consultations: Receive help with projects and assignments by phone or in person 7 days a week, during the library’s regular hours throughout academic trimesters.
- Electronic Databases: Access full-text journals, newspapers, and up-to-date business information via the library's many online subscription databases.
- Article/Book Requests Form: Retrieve and submit this form from the library webpage under “About the Library/Forms” when you are having difficulty finding the full text of a specific article.
- OhioLINK: OhioLINK’s collection of scholarly and peer-reviewed journals, company and industry information, images and videos, and a wide array of literature and social science topics.
- Meeting Rooms: Available for patrons to use for intra-campus calls.
- Library Instruction & Resources: Visit guides.franklin.edu to explore relevant resources and search strategies compiled for specific programs and courses. You’ll also find guides based on general topics such as evaluating sources, using APA Style®, and searching for job opportunities.

Additional Conveniences and Services
- Wireless: Free WiFi access is available for students who bring their laptops or other devices.
- Browsing Area: This spot provides a quiet place to read, study, and relax.
- Directory Phone: Available for patrons to use for intra-campus calls.
- Meeting Rooms: Reserve one of 12 meeting rooms, including two with SMART Boards®.
- Vending: Snacks and beverages can be purchased from our vending machines and enjoyed in the library while you study.
- Library Instruction & Resources: Visit guides.franklin.edu to explore relevant resources and search strategies compiled for specific programs and courses. You’ll also find guides based on general topics such as evaluating sources, using APA Style®, and searching for job opportunities.

Library Instruction & Resources
- Library Passport: Find tips and tools relevant to course assignments.
- Video Tutorials: Our webpage provides video tutorials demonstrating how to use the library and databases.
- Workshops: Take advantage of live and recorded workshop sessions on how to use library resources to successfully complete course research assignments.
- Library Research Guides: Visit guides.franklin.edu to explore relevant resources and search strategies compiled for specific programs and courses. You’ll also find guides based on general topics such as evaluating sources, using APA Style®, and searching for job opportunities.
- Additional Conveniences and Services
- Wireless: Free WiFi access is available for students who bring their laptops or other devices.
- Browsing Area: This spot provides a quiet place to read, study, and relax.
- Directory Phone: Available for patrons to use for intra-campus calls.
- Meeting Rooms: Reserve one of 12 meeting rooms, including two with SMART Boards®.
- Vending: Snacks and beverages can be purchased from our vending machines and enjoyed in the library while you study.

Franklin’s Preferred Databases
Journal Articles and Newspaper Sources
- EBSCO: A collective database, including Business Source Complete and Academic Search Complete, among others.
- Electronic Journal Center (EJC): More than 9,000 academic and peer-reviewed full-text research journals.
- LexisNexis: Full-text newspapers, journals, business information, and legal materials.

E-Book/Online Book Databases
- ebrary: Full-text reference, scholarly, and professional books available online.
- Electronic Book Center (EBC): OhioLINK’s collection of scholarly and reference books available online in a variety of subjects, primarily humanities and social sciences.
- Safari: Full-text business and computer books available online.

Business Research Databases
- MarketResearch.com Academic: Market intelligence and industry analysis provides full market research reports.
- MergerOnline: Search by company name or ticker symbol for information on business descriptions, financial statements and reports, history, property, subsidiaries, officers and directors, long-term debt, and capital stock.
- Morningstar: Provides access to more than 20,000 stock and fund securities.
- RIA Checkpoint: Enables comprehensive tax research covering federal tax, international tax, tax law, tax-related news, cases, rulings, and W&G financial reporting and management, including the AICPA library.
- Standard & Poor’s: Financial research and analysis that includes a description of the company, stocks and bond issues, earnings estimates, dividend and split history. Industry Surveys cover industry trends, forecasts, major players, market share data, key ratios, and statistics.

The Franklin University Nationwide Library
When you need to gather information, turn to the Franklin University Nationwide Library. Whether online or on campus, you have access to state-of-the-art research capabilities, databases, and qualified librarians who can provide reference assistance via phone and email seven days a week.
A member of a consortium of more than 80 college and university libraries, Franklin University’s library has sharing power of more than 49.5 million items that exceed 12 million unique titles and over 130 electronic databases.

Franklin’s library serves the research needs of our students. Not only are the library’s resources comprehensive and easily accessed, but also the quality of the assistance we provide is exceptional. We hope you’ll contact us for research assistance.

John M. Canter MBA, MLIS
Director of Library Services

Visit library.franklin.edu to search for books, articles, and more.